District Athletic Passes

During the season/tournament it is limited to use of the District employee ID. Access will be granted to the District employee with the ID badge and one (1) guest. All others must pay for admittance to the games.

Athletic Eligibility

Age Requirement

For all JV athletic activities a student shall be eligible through age thirteen (13). If a student in an athletic activity becomes fourteen (14) at any time during the season, he/she is not eligible to participate in that activity.

For all varsity athletic activities a student shall be eligible through age fifteen (15). If a student in an athletic activity becomes sixteen (16) at any time during the season, he/she is not eligible to participate in that activity.

Attendance

To participate in any contest, a student athlete must be in attendance 50% of the day a contest is scheduled, or 50% of the day before if a contest is to be on a non-school day. Students should be present in school by 11:00 am to be eligible to play. No student may participate if he/she is absent for the entire day of the contest. If a partial day absence is due to illness, personal, or family problems, the principal shall decide if a student may participate.

Academic Requirements

Eligibility shall be determined weekly during the scheduled season. Eligibility shall begin the Monday following the report. Eligibility goes for the entire week (Monday – Friday). A student who is deemed ineligible on a Friday shall remain ineligible for the entire next week even if grades are brought up throughout the week. An eligibility report should be run by an administrator on the last attendance day of the week. An administrator should report any academic forfeitures for the coming week to Mr. Barber by the end of the day on Friday in order to avoid paying officials game fees.

Minimum standards

Students who receive a cumulative quarterly average of an “F” in ANY subject, or more than one “D”, will be ineligible for one week until the student has raised grades to have no more than one “D”. Grades should be taken from Skyward. Athletic eligibility will not be based on a semester grade. Eligibility will start over every quarter (previous quarter grades do not affect current eligibility).

The principal is responsible for:

1. Weekly check of grades including specific course requirements being met.
2. Removing suspended students (in season, 1st day of tryouts) from the roster.
3. Distributing the policy and rules sheet, as well as concussion information sheet, to each coach and ensuring both sheets are signed and on file in the office, indicating each student and parent acknowledge and fully understand the eligibility rules of the school as well as concussion procedures. (Forms can be found at the end of the handbook.)

Disciplinary Action

- A student may be declared ineligible by the principal, even though academic requirements have been met, if a committed offense is considered gross disobedience or misconduct.
- A policy shall not be interpreted to prohibit a coach from dismissing a student athlete from a sport if there is a violation of the coach/school/district rules.
- The principal or his designee has the final responsibility for the eligibility of the student.
- Student athletes who are suspended from school will be removed from the current athletic team for the remainder of the season which includes the post-season tournament.
- Teams that refuse to accept their trophies or who refuse to show proper sportsmanship during the tournament may be banned from post season play the following year. The athletic director will make that decision within 30 days of completion of the tournament.

A sports physical is required for all athletes before they are allowed to participate in daily practice or any contest. Students are not required to have a sports physical to try out for a particular sport.

Concussion Information Sheet

A concussion is a brain injury and all brain injuries are serious. They are caused by a bump, blow, or jolt to the head, or by a blow to another part of the body with the force transmitted to the head. They can range from mild to severe and can disrupt the way the brain normally works. Even though most concussions are mild, all concussions are potentially serious and may result in complications including prolonged brain damage and death if not recognized and managed properly. In other words, even a “ding” or a bump on the head can be serious. You can’t see a concussion and most sports concussions occur without loss of consciousness. Signs and symptoms of concussion may show up right after the injury or can take hours or days to fully appear. If your child reports any symptoms of concussion, or if you notice the symptoms or signs of concussion yourself, seek medical attention right away.

Symptoms may include the following:

What can happen if my child keeps on playing with a concussion or returns too soon?

Athletes with the signs and symptoms of concussion should be removed from play immediately. Continuing to play with the signs and symptoms of a concussion leaves the young athlete especially vulnerable to greater injury. There is an increased risk of significant damage from a concussion for a period of time after that concussion occurs, particularly if the athlete suffers another concussion before completely recovering from the first one. This can lead to prolonged recovery, or even to severe brain swelling (second impact syndrome) with devastating and even fatal consequences. It is well known that adolescent or teenage athletes will often fail to report symptoms of injuries. Concussions are no different. As a result, education of administrators, coaches, parents and students is the key to student-athlete’s safety.

If you think your child has suffered a concussion

Any athlete even suspected of suffering a concussion should be removed from the game or practice immediately. No athlete may return to activity after an apparent head injury or concussion, regardless of how mild it seems or how quickly symptoms clear, without medical clearance. Close observation of the athlete should continue for several hours. IHSA Policy requires athletes to provide their school with written clearance from either a physician licensed to practice medicine in all its branches or a certified athletic trainer working in conjunction with a physician licensed to practice medicine in all its branches prior to returning to play or practice following a concussion or after being removed from an interscholastic contest due to a possible head injury or concussion and not cleared to return to that same contest. In accordance with state law, all IHSA member schools are required to follow this policy.

You should also inform your child’s coach if you think that your child may have a concussion. Remember, it’s better to miss one game than miss the whole season. When in doubt, the athlete sits out.
