Our students are breaking through barriers as we’re breaking ground on new facilities, launching new programs, and expanding opportunities — and that’s just the beginning.

UNIVERSITY UPDATES

COMPUTER SCIENCE FACILITY
UIC is breaking ground on a state-of-the-art computer science facility. The new 135,000 square foot teaching and learning spaces will include active-learning classroom spaces, research labs for UIC faculty, and a brand new robotics lab.

$40 MILLION DONATION
A generous donation from philanthropist MacKenzie Scott, the largest single gift ever received by UIC, will be used to support low-income students by improving resources for on-time graduation and access to internships, housing grants, and expanding UIC’s Pop-Up-Pantry.

BREAK THROUGH TECH CHICAGO
Female and nonbinary students pursuing a minor in computer or data science can take advantage of opportunities like paid micro-internships, career preparation, and community-building.

$410 MILLION IN SPONSORED RESEARCH
UIC broke records in 2020 for surpassing $400 million in sponsored research, the most in university history.
