STUDENT SHOW CASE

Dr. Wood introduced Ms. Sarah Wadi, Principal of Whittier Primary school. Ms. Wadi announced the winner of the Gwendolyn Brooks Youth Poetry Contest. Gwendolyn Brooks was an honored poet with the distinction of being the first black Pulitzer Prize winner. She was an activist and an advocate for writers and poets. Third grader, Mattalyn Sears, was the recipient of this award.

PRESENTATION BY AUDIENCE

Mr. Knapp previously handed out information regarding improperly masking children. He also discussed a booklet containing a 38 page report on masking. He feels the masks are useless.

Charlie Thomas indicated that some teachers have informed him that they spend a lot of time preparing for walk throughs and they are concerned what is hanging on their walls. He stated that they should be worried about other things such as having too many children in a classroom and discipline. He also expressed his displeasure of teachers having to clock in and out each day.

Kim Thomas stated that this district needs an alternative school. Also, teachers’ aides are needed in all classrooms. She stated that there needs to be consequences for students who are insubordinate.

Jessica James stated that she is against vaccines and masks. She feels it should be the parents decision as to whether children wear a mask or not.

Steve Brandt is also against the mask mandate. He also expressed his displeasure of the name change of Thomas Jefferson to C.T. Vivian.

SUPERINTENDENT UPDATE

Dr. Kherat stated that there is a huge need for alternative options for children in K-4. She asked Coach Derrick Booth to speak on ChanceLight, the nation’s leading provider of the behavioral health therapy and education solutions for children and young adults.
Coach Booth shared some background of ChanceLight and the services they provide. He stated they provide customizable programming, exemplary staff and a curriculum. He stated that Peoria Public School has no alternative programs for our primary level non-IEP students. It has identified a growing number of primary age students who are exhibiting behaviors and skills that are not developmentally appropriate. He spoke on the challenges at primary level and stated that this is an effort to provide them with supports to get their development up to age appropriate level. He stated that the goal for partnering with ChanceLight would be to support primary age students who are not developmentally ready for school academically, socially or emotionally. The goal is also to teach them the skill they are lacking in a small class environment with trained certified staff to prevent students from be labeled with an IEP in the future. The timeline of research and communication was shared of observations and notes from a May 14th visit to Crystal Lake sight.
