

Students – Administrative Procedure

School Wellness

1. School administrators will support and promote good nutrition and physical activity for all students.
2. Health, nutrition and physical exercise will be promoted through Science classes, Health classes, and Physical Education classes.
3. Nutritional Education materials will be available through the District website, the District school calendar, and through the individual school newsletter.

December 18, 2006