

InstructionExam Exemption Policy for Peoria Public Schools District 150
2012 – 2013 School Year

Students in District 150 may waive their final exams if they meet the following requirements listed below with the exception of students in English I and Algebra I. Students may waive exams in 2012 – 2013 school year for the courses they qualify.

- The student must have written permission from their parent/guardian for each course the student will exempt.
- The student must have maintained a “B” average or higher in the class.
- The student may not have accumulated more than 10 tardies during the year. The student may not have accumulated more than 5 tardies for the few designated semester classes.
- The student cannot have any unexcused absences from school or class for the year. The student cannot have any unexcused absences from school or class for the few designated semester classes.
- The student cannot have accumulated more than 5 excused absences per class period during the year, excluding college visitation days. Students are allowed three college visitation days per year, but documentation from the admission’s department stating students were in attendance on their college campus must be presented. Approved absences for the observance of religious holidays will not be counted against the student. The student cannot have accumulated more than 3 excused absences per class period during the semester, excluding college visitation days for the few designated semester classes. As above, documentation must be provided.
- The student may not have more than 2 in-school suspensions in order to exempt year long classes. The student cannot have any in-school suspensions in order to exempt the few designated semester classes.
- The student may not have an out of school suspension during the year. The student may not have an out of school suspension during the semester for the few designated semester classes.

REVISED: August 27, 2012